

How To Set Up A Successful Medical Weight Loss Program

May 2022

Table of Contents

Page

Part 1

Reality Check for MDs, Success Criteria, Diet Market Outlook, Competition, Program Components, Pricing, ACA's Preventative Care Benefit Opportunities, What Dieters Want, Franchises & Other Models

Guide objectives	3
Do you have what it takes to compete in this business? What it takes to succeed	7
What dooms a weight loss company to failure?	9
Weight Loss Market: 2022 Status Report & Forecasts	14-40
Market segment 2022 forecasts, major developments since 2020	14
$ size of the weight loss market, by market segment: 2016 – 2022 Forecast	17
The top competitor companies, revenues in 2020 & 2021: Table	18
The Pandemic's Effect on the Weight Loss Market and Dieters	18
Top 7 Diets for 2022	20
Status of Commercial Weight Loss Companies: market leaders, major developments, 2020-2021 performance, 2022 forecasts	23
Status of Medical Weight Loss Programs: effects of the Pandemic, market size (surgery, Rx drugs, hospital, MD and clinic programs, bariatricians, 2020-2021 performance	29
The bariatric surgery market, discussion, telehealth visits, Table: no. of surgeries 1995-2022 F, No. of surgeries by type, $ value of surgery market 1995-2022 F	35
The prescription diet drugs market: new drugs, growth	36
Hospital, Clinic-based and Other MD Programs: top competitors	38

Why Medical Weight Loss? Why Now?

Rationale for demand, position vs. commercial programs, barriers,

Competition: types of medical weight loss providers, fees 41

Retail Drugstore Chain Healthcare Mini-Clinics

44

Effects of the pandemic on retail healthcare clinics, the major chains and no. of sites they operate

Summaries/descriptions of weight loss programs provided by: CVS, Walgreens (Take Care), Rite-Aid (RediClinics), Wal-Mart 48

Hospital, Clinic, and Physician-Based Weight Loss Programs

53

Summary and description of types of medical weight loss programs

Description of typical physician-based program, estd. no. of MDs offering a weight loss program, by company/vendor vs independents,

Average Cost To The Patient for a 12-16 week program

Physicians have the expertise

59

Bariatricians' Weight Loss Programs

59-70

Status of the profession, why it hasn't grown much, profile of the typical

Bariatrician (age, income, gender, years in practice, staff size, training, number, medications used, cost of treatment, etc.)

VLCD & LCD (very low calorie diets & low calorie diets) Turnkey

Modified Fasting Programs

70-82

How VLCD programs work, description, insurance reimbursement

Size of the market, no. of patients served

Findings of interview with management of: HMR, Vivaliti, Karol Clark medical programs 73

Major market trends, growth factors, 2025 forecast, positive & negative factors affecting the market

Medical Weight Loss Program Advantages & Disadvantages 83

Medical clinic competitive advantages & disadvantages

Available medical weight loss models: franchises, licenses, turn-key models 85

Tables:

- Average revenues per outlet, top medical weight loss companies 87
- Typical revenues & expenses, earnings per medical weight loss center 87
- Avg. cost to the patient, top medical weight loss companies 88
- Avg. income statement for a medical weight loss franchise 89
- Start-up costs for the top medical weight loss franchises 90

Company Profiles (how their program works, no. of sites, company details)

- Lindora Clinics (corporate chain, not a franchise) 91
- Centers for Medical Weight Loss (licensee model) 97
- Medi-WeightLoss Clinics 100
- Medical Weight Loss Clinics of Michigan (corporate chain) 106
- Smart For Life 105
- Nuviva Clinics 107
- Let's Lose Advanced Weight Loss 108
- JumpstartMD 109
- Dr. G's Weight Loss Clinics 110
- Ideal Protein 111

Should you purchase a franchise? Is it worth it? 113

Obamacare: the major opportunity created, the Preventative Health Benefit explained, features & limitations, the business opportunity for MDs, PAs, NPs, RDs 114

Obamacare: CPT codes for weight loss counseling reimbursement 119

Part 2

Start-up Costs, Retail Clinic Set-up & Layout, Procedures Manual, Staff Recruitment & Salaries, Operations, Revenues & Profits, Bookkeeping, Marketing Methods, Counselor's Role & Quality

Part-time vs. full-time venture? Your choice 120

Facility space and logistics – new standalone center vs. existing space 121

Start-up costs for a stand-alone retail weight loss center (non-franchise) 122

Operating costs/income statement for a stand-alone retail center 123

Investment costs to buy a medical weight loss franchise or license, by company 124

Finding the right retail site 125

Recommended lease terms 125

Center design: exterior and interior layouts 126

The Weight Loss Consumer Bill of Rights	127
Procedures manual: contents (forms, procedures/duties for personnel)	127
Equipment and supplies needed	128
Hours of operation	128
IT and Software recommendations	128
Bookkeeping – reports needed	130
Patient financing options: making it easy to pay you	131
Weight Loss Counselors: your key asset, weaknesses of commercial coaches, recruiting your staff	134
What counselors should do/not do, limitations	136
Ideal backgrounds of counselors	138
How to use Registered Dietitians in your practice (typical diet plans, how to find them) Collaborative Practice Agreements (see Appendix for sample)	138
Marketing: your advantages as a medical professional	143
Marketing: promotional methods to use
Marketing: budget: how much and how to spend it	144
Mining your existing patient database (via emails, waiting room fliers, videos)	145
Email: using it to stay in touch with weight loss patients	146
Your website: key features, how it can work for you, best practices for e-commerce	147
Customer loyalty	148
Waiting room brochures (also see samples in Appendix)
Local newspaper ads, costs, using social media, referrals from other healthcare pros	150
Marketing & Advertising Consultants experienced in the weight loss market	152
Appendix:
- Sample Collaborative Practice Agreement for Nurse Practitioners	153
- Table: State by state scope of practice rules for nurse practitioners	156
- Design samples of fliers describing your program, for your waiting room	158

Part 3

Case Studies of Successful Medical Weight Loss Chains, Creating Meal Plans, Private Labeling of Meal Replacements, Using Prescription Obesity Drugs, Using Supplements, Strategy of Diversification.

Why diet companies fail or lose their way– case studies (LA Weight Loss, Weight Watchers)	163
Case studies of successful medical weight loss organizations (Lindora, HMR – Health Management Resources, NutriSystem, Johns Hopkins)

Diversification: in-person and virtual/phone services, different plans for different budgets	170
Creating meal plans: using a Registered Dietitian, DASH Diet, other options	171
Using multiple plans, the importance of customization
In-depth description of how the DASH program works, calorie levels, foods not allowed, menus, tips, lifestyle changes, typical daily menu (tables)	172-183
Using prescription diet drugs: safe drugs to use, problems with previous diet drugs, discussions of: Phentermine, Xenical, Qsymia, Belviq, Alli, Saxenda, Wegovy, others	183
- Form: Patient Informed consent for Appetite Suppressants and Participation in a Weight Management Program	195
Using dietary supplements: limitations, legal experts to consider, customer attitudes toward them, why use is a dual-edged sword, pricing, restrictions on claims, attorney specialists	199
Using meal replacements (shakes & bars): why they are popular and safe, your private label brand, vendors who can make them for you, calorie counts and sugar levels, the use of soy, the convenience factor, ingredients, high protein/high fiber	201
- Vendor profiles: Bariatric Advantage, Bariatric Choice, Bariatrix Nutrition, Nature's Sunshine
- Other companies using meal replacements (multi-level marketers, VLCD vendors, retail brands)
Complementary, optional services to offer (hormone tests, etc.)	212
Viewing your program as a complement to bariatric surgery patients (pre- and post-surgery), the growth of bariatric surgery, patient demographics, insurance coverage, demand, ACA coverage, ASMBS/other obesity societies	213
Establishing your brand: why it's important, actions and techniques, goals	224
Reference Directory of diet industry sources	226

